Preparing to Break Ground on Village #20

Announcing village #20...Chipanga!

This year's travel team witnessed the hardship of life in the Village of Chipanga. Each day's number one priority is to find water and bring it home. The hot, dry environment is a harsh reality the villagers must deal with in order to survive. A dried-up riverbed, miles from the village center, offers some water but only if you hand dig a deep hole and climb down to scoop it out. Once the water is gathered, the heavy buckets and cans must be carried home. This is done day in and day out. This will all change soon, as TLP is happy to announce our 20th clean water project will be in Chipanga! Your donation today will help bring relief to Chipanga villagers by providing a reliable and accessible source of clean water for their daily needs.

Celebrating Clean Water in Chitope

To commemorate the completed water project in Chitope, Executive Director Ben Mlula, along with travel team members Brad, Bridget and Sophia Koch, pose for a celebratory turning on of a water tap! (Bridget and Sophia are granddaughter and great-granddaughter of co-founders Jim and Katie Vanderheyden). This was truly a wonderful day engaging with the happy villagers, especially the kids!
